Left Behind, But Not Alone

Often the last words we hear from loved ones who are leaving us (either by death or distance of 16 is a	another kind) are so important. Their words usually stay with us for a long, long time. Chapter 10 is a continuation of Jesus' last words with His beloved disciples before His death. Read this chapter and notice that Jesus is telling them what they can expect after He leaves them.

1.		y was Jesus speaking to them about these matters at this time (John 16:1-6)? Also ew John 15:18-27.
bece	ome o	Near: Dear Father, it is hard for us to go through times of trouble. You know we can verwhelmed with discouragement. Thank You for providing just what we need through ag Word and indwelling Spirit. Your love and care for us is so very precious!!

Let's make our way through John 16 one more time, soaking in these truths and seeing what relevance Jesus' words have for us today. The Spirit's Ministry-Read John 16:5-15. 4. Jesus will send the Counselor (John 16:7) to the disciples after His departure. The meaning of His name reveals that His ministry to them (and us) will be one of comfort and counsel. Define and prayerfully meditate on the various meanings of the names His Greek name can be translated into. Comforter: Advocate: Intercessor: Helper: Strengthener: Jesus was limited to one body; therefore He could only be in one place at one time. But His Spirit has no such limitations. All believers have uninterrupted fellowship with the Spirit at all times wherever they go (John 14:17) thus Jesus' statement, It is for your good that I am going away. (John 16:7) 5. - 6. a. What threefold ministry does the Spirit have in the hearts of unbelievers (the world) from verses 8-11? Restate them using your own words.
 - b. What is it about the Spirit that you want to remember as you have opportunity to witness of Jesus by word and deed to the unbelievers among your family, friends, neighborhood, work environment?
- 7. Jesus had so much more to tell the disciples but they could not grasp it all at that time (verse 12).
 - a. How would it be that they would come to understand what Jesus wanted them to know in the days ahead (verses 13-15)?
 - b. Many years later John and others would write the books of the New Testament by inspiration of the Spirit giving them the thoughts of God. (Also read 1 Corinthians 2:6-7, 10.) How does knowing this affect the way you read this and other books in your Bible?

To Ponder: The Spirit is still at work today helping us understand the mind of God as revealed to us in the Bible. What actions/attitudes are necessary for you to have as you read your Bible?

Separation and Sorrow-Read John 16:16-22.

The disciples were focused on their own struggles as they wondered how long "a little while" was. Notice that Jesus did not answer that question for them. He did say He was going away (to the Father) and they would not be spared from this sorrow. In this section Jesus is speaking figuratively about His death and resurrection.

- 8. a. What do you think they better understood after considering the process a mother goes through as she gives birth to her child?
 - b. What was the substance of the joy the disciples would later come to know?

	c.	Give an example of a time when the very thing that caused great sorrow in your or someone else's life later brought lasting joy.
	d.	Are you going through a time of sorrow? What comforts you from this passage as you bring to Jesus questions like, Dear Lord, how long? Why? What is Your plan?
It is d	during direc	er's Love-Read John 16:23-33. It is times of great trouble when we often wonder where God is in all of our difficulties. It is ted the disciples' attention to the Father (an intimate term) who was not distant even orld seemed to be spinning out of control.
9.	How	and why will the disciples have direct access to the Father (verses 23-28)?
10.		ce the disciples' final statement of faith (verse 30). Shortly after these words are en to Jesus they will fail Him (verses 31-33). What did Jesus tell them would happen to their resolve? (We will read more about that in a few weeks.)
	b.	Jesus knew they would fail. Yet, what gracious gift did He say they could receive from Him?
	c.	What do you see in these verses that would make it possible for the disciples (and us) to take heart at times like these? Also read Lamentations 3:19-26.
11.		e a prayer of thanksgiving for the benefits you have as a believer who has been invited a personal relationship with the Father, the Spirit and the Son.
